Rosalie Music

Concerning my Facebook site, I have been putting a lot of thought into what format the site should take in the future.

Despite having millions of views by fans all over the World, we are thinking that the amount of effort that must be expended in maintaining an active Facebook presence is becoming a little unmanageable.

Despite having literally millions of Facebook views, and spending the past two years of effort, we do not feel that our time is best spent building our presence on Facebook going forward.

So I have decided to re-focus my efforts into other platforms such as Youtube, Patreon and my own Website.

NEW VIDEO

Making of "Touch Your People"

I just released a new Documentary type video on the making and recording of my cover song "Touch Your People Once Again".

This video is intended to be the first in a series of special "Behind the Scenes" type videos that will take you into the World of Music Making.

I have brought you something unique in this documentary video "The Making of "Touch Your People Once Again".

I sing this cover of the original song by Pelle Karlsson.

I take you inside my private recording studio and walk with you through an actual recording session from my upcoming cover song "Touch Your People Once Again". If you have never been inside a real recording studio and have ever wondered how it is done...now is your time to

I will maintain my Facebook site for those fans who prefer that platform, but, at least for the short term I will be putting my main focus into some of the alternative platforms.

You will still be able to watch my videos as they are released on Facebook, but I am not intending to maintain such a high profile presence there.

Please visit me on my website or on Youtube or Patreon (in the near future).

My latest new 3 studio album releases are now available at my online store in CD format.

I had been considering no longer carrying all of my new releases on CD, but you asked for them.

"Kickin' It Klassical"

"Mumbo Jumbo"

"Rhythm of Your Heart"

I am so excited about these three new CD's that I actually made this short funny little video about it.

You can watch it on Youtube:

Touch Your People Once Again

This is the music video of the song which is the subject of the musical documentary shown earlier in this post.

Touch Your People Once Again is one of the most intimate of modern Gospel Songs. It is a profound and deeply moving supplication to God to restore his Church on Earth.

If you have not heard this song before, it will deeply touch your heart!

Rosalie Drysdale sings an intimate and heartfelt arrangement of "Touch Your People Once Again". This is one of the most inspirational songs we have ever done, it is the perfect song of hope and trust in our faith.

Join Rosalie on this heartfelt journey of faith, hope and devotion.

I have continued to build on my webpage and online store.

All of my CD's are available in the online store, you can download music, and order a variety of unique merchandise.

MONTHLY OPINION

Instinct

Spiders! Scary!! Well maybe not, but there are some folks who are truly terrified of them. That kind of fear of spiders is called Arachnophobia. I'm sure you've heard of it. They are everywhere in the summer, just doing their thing, living their best life.

We have been having such beautiful weather so my husband, Ken, and I have been having our morning coffee outside. It's wonderful to hear the birds sing, feel the refreshing breeze, and hear the water flow from fountain.

Right beside me, I notice something sort of shimmering. I look down, and in the bush beside me I see a shiny, intricate spiderweb gleaming against the morning sun's rays.

I am interested in how perfect it seems. How in the world do those little spiders figure out how to weave these delicate and perfectly round structures. Look at how there are support lines spun from the center of the web to the outside of the circle. They are spaced as supporting "beams" for the whole structure. These spiders are, by virtue of instinct, Web Engineers!! The web is made of silk. The spider produces the silk from glands located in their abdomen. This is astounding to me!

They produce the material they need from inside of themselves and they use it, instinctively, to fashion their homes, create their environment, and to prepare a place for their sustenance. And, when it's complete, it shimmers in the sun like gold and silver. It's beautiful and masterful! I'm so impressed.

Wow! The things I can learn from a spider! Greer Garson.

Video Releases

With summer winding up,...Ha Ha, yes it is true, life on the beautiful Lake Winnipeg shoreline is ever changing and believe it or not a week ago the temperatures were in the upper 80's and 90's and now a chill is in the air and the leaves on the trees are already starting to turn yellow.

So I have just released two new videos, see the write up on the right side of this newsletter for more information on those.

And I am currently working on the music video for my song "Mumbo Jumbo" which should be released in early September... so keep an eye out.

In the meantime, have you seen the following videos of mine on Youtube:

SOMETHING SPECIAL

"Decoding Acheron"

Over the past several months we have received thousands of requests from fans to discuss the meaning of our music video "Acheron". If you have not watched the video yet, it is on my Youtube channel:

Watch Acheron Now

This video and the song itself is unique in so many ways:

- First it is over 12 minutes long!
- The music is a fusion original orchestration of Bach's "Toccat and Fugue", by Rosalie Drysdale.
- It tells the long history of the World from Start to Finish to Start Again. Ha Ha..it tells this in 12 minutes and 5 seconds!!!!
- The images are breathtaking. Turn UP the Volume on this one.
- The word "Acheron" is from ancient Greek Mythology and refers to the "river of woe"
- Both music track and video presentation are stunning and thought provoking.
- Let the images sink into your mind, let the music carry you along with the story.

Spotify

My new album "Rhythm of Your Heart" is now available on Spotify.

I love it when you to listen to me anywhere, but if you can, please support me by purchasing music from my website directly.

September Video Feature

Here are some of my favourite videos that are available for you on Youtube.

Drop by my Youtube Channel, I am always adding content and have a lot more to come later in September.

But here is one of my Favs!

Watch on Youtube

I am considering creating a whole video that just goes through the imagery in this music video and describes what is happening and what the meaning of the images are.

That will likely be a video on my Patreon site!!

So if you have not watched this video, I assure you it will leave you with many many questions, you will need to watch it over and over again to see the incredible number of historical references contained in the video.

So please stop by and have a look at this epic video, and please keep an eye out for our upcoming "Decoding Acheron" video.

NEW MUSIC RELEASES September 2021

I will be releasing a variety of new single tunes in the month of September.

These tunes should be released in the early to mid part of September, and include many original tunes that you have not heard before:

I have been working in the studio and with the team, to create the kind of music you have come to expect from me.

Some of the songs coming out in September include:

- "Gotta Try" (Original)
- "Happy Now" (Original)
- "Natalie" (Original - Music by James Creasey, Lyrics by Rosalie Drysdale)
- "Touch Your People Once Again" (Cover)

So stay tuned to us on our Website, Facebook, and all major platforms for the upcoming song releases.

Patreon

I am working hard to create exciting new content for my new Patreon Channel that is due to launch this September.

I will be providing unique programming that will only be available to my Patreon Members, I am planning:

Website Redesign

I am working with my team to completely refurbish my website.

The intent is to make the website easier to use and to provide an improved visitor experience.

I am hoping to have the migration to the new site completed by the end of September 2021 or the early part of October 2021.

So please keep your eye out for this major upgrade and let me know what you think.
